

Stir-n-Up Hope

Equine Assisted Activities and Equine Assisted Learning

Does your Middle Schooler struggle with social anxiety, low self-esteem, and confidence that has induced depression, no motivation, or awkward social skills?

If so, then do not miss out on this weeklong camp at Stir-n-Up Hope where your Middle Schooler will learn the tools necessary to build healthier relationship skills through the interaction and relationship with a horse. Horses are a wonderful inviting and great motivator. They help teach individuals how to be confident and practice the character skills necessary to function in social settings. The horses provide the freedom to experience these skills in an environment with no judgement.

Horse activities will be led by PATH Certified Horsemanship Instructors. Each participant will receive a camp shirt and daily goodies to take home. Camp will be from 9am-11am, June 14-17th at Stir-n-Up Hope located just around the corner of Holiday World on Hwy 162. Cost is $100. There are a limited number of scholarships available. For further information or questions, email stirnuphope@psci.net or call 812-393-0941.
